-2-

That all unbelief will be broken off of our lives.

That all darkness in us be displaced with His light.

That we walk in love by Your definition (choosing to be affectionate and doing what is right.)

That we will enter the 'rest' of God, thus enabling us to enjoy the journey. Heb. 4:9-11.

That we will be as the sons of Issachar in knowing what the Lord is doing and how to properly respond. I Chron. 12:32.

That all passivity be broken off of us.

That we be free to walk as unrestrained citizens in His K. Gal. 5:13. Jo. 8:31-32.

That we be healed from the inside out.

That we will be the most gracious, grateful, praising people in this region.

That we pay and pray the price to be a 'pattern' church in this area. "Like I want it for a change." (April, 1977).

That we faithfully carry the intercessory responsibilities we have been assigned.

That all fear and bondage be broken off of us.

That we may be able to ‘simplify’ our lives in order to sit before Him more profitably. This includes “extracting the precious from the worthless”; sorting out which battles to fight; and reduce ‘too much information’.

That Col. 1:9-12 be accomplished in our lives—“and we continue to pray for you that you may be filled with the knowledge of His will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, so that we might walk worthy of the Lord, entirely pleasing to Him, being fruitful in every good work, and multiplying in the full knowledge of God. We pray that you will be strengthened with all might, according to His power in you, so that you can persevere and be patient, with joy, in every situation, giving thanks to the Father for giving you an inheritance.”
